Motivational Speaker, Talent Development Expert, Empowerment Coach, Author

For organizations wishing to manage their internal changes in a proactive and positive way, or if a group needs an injection of inspiration, Marsha is the person to call.

For individuals feeling stuck or unfulfilled, and those wanting to jumpstart their life, Marsha is the person to meet.

Marsha has turned her business expertise into a career of helping others become and remain successful. As a successful entrepreneur (StepWise Associates, LLC), cofounder of a women's organization (Black Women of Influence), co-author of bestseller, The Little Black Book of Success: Laws of Leadership for Black Women and former human resources executive and leadership advisor, Marsha has advised senior management and coached professionals at all levels offering customized services to help clients plan and implement strategies to reach their goals.

Marsha continues her commitment to the success of others as she travels throughout the country sharing leadership tips and success strategies as well as facilitating coaching programs and workshops.

Marsha's work garners recognition. The Network Journal named her an "Influential Woman in Business." She received the YMCA's Black Achievement Award, the National Association of African Americans in Human Resources (NAAHR) Trailblazer Award and the Community Service Award. Marsha also committed herself to prepare the next generation of Leaders as a former member of the Board of Directors for YouthBridge-NY, a non-profit high school leadership development organization.

She is committed to the success of others and is purpose driven to inspire her clients and audiences to take an active role in achieving their goals.
